CONNECT YOUR LIFESTYLE TO A WORLD-CLASS UNIVERSITY.

Through our close affiliation with the University of Central Florida, Legacy Pointe at UCF buzzes with campus-style energy, each day enriched by the activity of residents and UCF students. Every UCF college is part of our affiliation agreement, ensuring our community offers the same distinctive quality and devotion to personal development for which UCF is known.

All Legacy Pointe residents can enjoy many of the same benefits and access as the UCF community. From auditing classes and faculty lectures on a space-available basis to mentoring students studying in your field of expertise to attending campus events and cheering on the Knights, you can expect a culture of growth, hospitality, and overall excellence. We're reimagining what retirement living looks like and, thanks to our partnership with UCF, the possibilities are truly infinite.

Legacy Pointe's affiliation with UCF promises to provide:

- ◆ A multigenerational campus that will be woven into residents' daily lives
- ◆ Opportunities for residents to audit university classes that will broaden their knowledge
- ◆ An unmatched standard of dining and hospitality throughout all levels of living, influenced by the world-class Rosen College of Hospitality Management
- ◆ Vibrant students who will form meaningful relationships with residents
- ◆ Cutting-edge care influenced by UCF's renowned College of Nursing and College of Health Professions and Sciences
- ◆ Lifelong learning programs that will help advance successful aging within the community

UCF ROSEN COLLEGE OF HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT

Find fulfillment through inspired dining, educational opportunities, and top-tier services.

The Rosen College of Hospitality Management collaborates with the Legacy Pointe at UCF team to enhance community programming, influence an increased level of hospitality, and elevate aspects of our dining experience.

◆ INTELLECTUAL ENRICHMENT

Residents enjoy a full schedule of educational and entertaining events and activities, including access to intellectual lectures, culinary classes and demonstrations, beer and wine tastings, and much more.

◆ CULINARY MEDICINE

The college's culinary training offers programming designed to help care for various diseases such as heart conditions, diabetes and cancers, all tailored to residents' individual needs.

◆ INFLUENTIAL LEADERSHIP

As the #2 hospitality college in the world, Rosen College works closely with the Legacy Pointe team to provide unparalleled experiences in dining, an elevated presentation of amenities, and superior attention to detail for the services offered in every level of living.

UCF COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

Live with confidence knowing that Legacy Pointe at UCF works collaboratively with the UCF College of Medicine and College of Nursing to set high standards of quality care for every level of living in our continuum of care.

◆ HEALTH EDUCATION

Residents have the opportunity to attend frequent faculty and student presentations on health, wellness, and nutrition, as well as enlightening seminars on senior issues and medical research.

◆ COLLABORATIVE RESEARCH

Residents can participate in medical student research projects that relate to health, wellness, disease, the practice of medicine and the processes that are involved in each.

◆ QUALITY HEALTH CARE

The College of Medicine offers participation in geriatric and specialty care programs to Legacy Pointe residents through the UCF College of Health Professions and Sciences and the UCF College of Nursing.

UCF COLLEGE OF NURSING

Enhance your journey in healthy aging with compassionate, cutting-edge care.

The College of Nursing collaborates with our team to instill community health initiatives, develop programs focused on resident health, and work on quality improvement initiatives throughout our campus.

◆ WELLNESS PROGRAMS

The college's students, faculty members, and health care professionals work together with our team to provide programs that encourage a proactive approach to wellness for residents across all levels of living in our community.

◆ STUDENT RELATIONSHIPS

Nursing students under the supervision of Legacy Pointe's nursing department assist with caregiver duties through internships and often form close personal connections with residents.

◆ SKILLED NURSING GUIDANCE

The College of Nursing works with our team leaders on developing best practices, policies, and proactive approaches to aging, ensuring continual improvement of our quality of care.

UCF COLLEGE OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS AND SCIENCES

Our affiliation with UCF delivers the support of nationally recognized programs focused on health and wellness from the College of Health Professions and Sciences. Respected faculty dedicated to teaching innovations and research partnerships help influence our own community's wellness programs. This partnership is key to our commitment to supporting residents' physical, intellectual, spiritual and social wellness.

- ◆ The college's School of Social Work, through its education and research programs, influences our community's programs, including grief counseling, dementia, aging issues, nutrition and health, anxiety, depression, etc.
- ◆ Every level of care at Legacy Pointe has the total support of the college's physical therapy, kinesiology, communication sciences and other programs.

UCF COLLEGE OF SCIENCES

The UCF College of Sciences offers a wide variety of programs to Legacy Pointe residents in all levels of living. Subjects include communication and journalism, as well as the physical, biological, social, behavioral and computational sciences.
